RE: Safety 1st Accu-Light Ear Thermometer

Dear Mr. Costides:

We represent the Ocean Group companies in intellectual property legal matters. It has come to our attention that you recently have begun selling Safety 1st® Accu-Light ear thermometers.

MEDport is the supplier of Timex® Illuminator™ ear thermometers and has pending patent applications directed to digital ear thermometers with lighting for illuminating the ear canal, which we note is a feature that is highlighted in your packaging and literature.

We bring this to your attention to provide you with an opportunity to modify your plans for these Accu-Light products.

Yours very truly,

Cook, Alex, McFarron, Manzo,
Cummings & Mehler Ltd.
